

Driftin'

Driftin' on the clouds of delight
Simply driftin' under your touch
Oh when you found me I was hard to be kissed
But you persisted and I thank you so much

Now I am driftin' lost in the mood
Floating from your love
Oh how you moved me how you turned me around
Pulled me from the bottom to the heavens above

Driftin' with no thoughts in my mind
Driftin' possessed by you
Glad to be set free from my hard core heart
What a lovely obsession you have chained me to

Driftin' in the sun of your eyes
Darlin' how could you know
I was so completely lost and you knew it too
And you saved me, took me in tow
Driftin' ...
